REGATTAS INTEREST LAKE GEORGE AT BOTH ENDS

Four Rival Associations Along Lake Shores Keep Up Lively Interest.

Many Features for Centennial Celebration of Warren County—At the Hotels.

LAKE GEORGE, N. Y., Aug. 2.—Regatta interests loom large in the entertainment features at this resort, there being rival regatta associations of considerable magnitude at each end of the lake, besides two smaller organizations along shore. The Hague Association will hold its regatta on August 21 and the Iroquois organization has its dates for August 28 and 29.

The coming week is the centennial of the founding of Warren county, and Lake George is the county seat, and hosts of visitors are already gathering for the many features of the celebration.

The Ankle Deep, owned by Count Cassimir S. Mankowski of Lake George, is one of the entrants for the Gold Challenge cup at the Thousand Islands regatta.

The success of this boat is a matter of great concern to Lake Georgians, and T. Edmund Krumholz of the Sagamore is at the bay as the representative of the Lake George Association, for which the Ankle Deep is an entrant.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holden Huss of New York, members of the cottage club at the Lake George Club, have charge of the musical festival to be held at the club on the first and third Fridays of this month.

John D. Crimmins and Miss E. Crimmins are spending a short time at the Fort William Hotel.

Kohns, Miss E. B. Ball, Master Robert and Paul Kohn.

Hotel Marion—Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cornwall, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Gatter, Mrs. Joseph Johnson, Miss Major, Mrs. E. M. Sanderson, Harold Sanderson, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Traw, James Sherriff, Mr. and Mrs. William Logie and Mr. and Mrs. James M. O'Neil, New York.

VARIED AMUSEMENTS

AT SARANAC LAKE

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., Aug. 2.—Baseball, tennis, fishing parties, social functions and other events have been holding the attention of the summer colony at Saranac Lake and each has had its full following. Baseball has always been popular here and the series of games being played here are no exception. The enthusiasm of even the most saturated fans. To-day the boys' club is at Lake Placid playing a return of the game that was held here on the diamond Thursday with the Stevens House team.

Yesterday there was more amusement than skill when an amateur team captained by Charles J. Swain of Philadelphia met the boys' club on the athletic field.

Among the social events of the week was a launch picnic given by Mrs. Walter H. Larson and Mrs. William B. Trowbridge on Lower Saranac Lake yesterday.

The Sylvan Outdoor Shakespeare players are to give "As You Like It" in Saranac Lake some time during this month, and the play will undoubtedly be staged on the Saranac Lake Country Club grounds as before.

Miss Millicent Enkle of New York, who is staying at Camp Elleen on Lower Saranac Lake, caught a two pound bullhead, the largest reported here this season.

Mrs. J. S. Lawson of Brooklyn is in Saranac Lake visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Marsh, Miss F. Marsh and Miss A. Picklay are occupying a camp on Lower Saranac Lake and motoring to various resorts and points hereabout.

GOLFERS ON ST. REGIS LAKES PLAN MATCHES

Lively Interest Takes Campers Daily to the Golf Grounds.

Entertainments in Honor of Princess Lowenstein—Other Affairs.

PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., Aug. 2.—Golfers along the St. Regis lakes are arranging for a tournament to be held this month on the links of the St. Regis River Golf Club, with cups given in the various events. There is much interest in the sport and the boats of the campers are daily seen making their way to and from the golf grounds. Among the most enthusiastic of the players are William Rauch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marvin Hewitt, Curtis Shoupe, William W. McAlpin, T. Edward Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Brewster, Louis Raegener, L. C. Raegener, Jr., L. Mitchell Henry and Dr. Walter B. James.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Earle, Jr., of Philadelphia are entertaining a large house party, and on Monday evening Mrs. Earle brought her guests, with those from the camp of her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence D. Bease, on Snitfire Lake, to Paul Smith's cottage, where the evening was spent in bowling.

Princess Lowenstein is at Paul Smith's hotel and is being entertained and feted by the members of the St. Regis camp colony. Mrs. Adolph Ladenburgh gave a luncheon at her cottage Lake camp, when she had as her guests Princess Lowenstein and Mr. and Mrs. William G. Rockefeller.

This is the first season that Mr. and Mrs. Rockefeller have taken any interest in the social functions of the resort. One of the sports of the week was a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Rockefeller, when Princess Lowenstein and Mrs. Ladenburgh were among the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Leverich of Corona, L. I., and Mr. and Mrs. John Moore Perry of St. John, have taken cottage rooms at Paul Smith's.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Mitchell Henry of New York are guests of Mrs. Henry's father, Louis Raegener, at Kamp Kanamha.

Miss Elizabeth Cutting, with her father, Churchill Cutting of New York, is at Paul Smith's. Miss Cutting is one of the editors of the North American Review.

C. W. Burnham, W. T. Earl, M. E. Kinsley and A. M. Kinsley of Kenwood, N. Y., are touring the Adirondacks. Clinton W. Bird and Walter Bird of Peekskill were also here. Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Sanford, Miss Hilda K. Sanford and Master Fletcher B. Sanford were motor tourists. Another motoring party was that of Mr. and Mrs. I. Schoellkopf of Niagara Falls, Mrs. E. E. Kison of New York, Miss Lucy Penn of North Carolina and Elmore Willets of Belmont.

George Hobart, who has been occupying a cottage at Paul Smith's, left for New York this week, making the beautiful water trip to Old Forge via the Raquette River. Mr. Hobart was accompanied by his young son and guides. Last week the party went to Lake Placid and made the ascent of Whiteface Mountain.

RECORD BREAKING WEEK IN SACANDAGA REGION.

SACANDAGA, N. Y., Aug. 2.—The last week at the resorts in the Sacandaga region has indeed been a busy one, and if the number of parties passing through Sacandaga to Wells, Hope, Northville, Speculator, Lake Pleasant and Lake Placid can be taken as an indication the towns further on in the section have also had a record breaking week.

To-night's hop at the Adirondack Inn is surpassing in brilliancy any social event that has ever been seen in this section of

ALEXANDRIA BAY SEES REMARKABLE GOLF FEAT

424 Yard Hole, Whose Bogey Is Five, Made in Two Strokes.

Visited by Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club of Montreal.

ALEXANDRIA BAY, Thousand Islands, Aug. 2.—One of the most remarkable golf feats ever seen at the Thousand Islands was performed Monday by F. M. Follenwider, who made the fifth hole, a distance of 424 yards, in two strokes. Bogey for the hole is five.

The annual tournament at the Thousand Islands Country Club will commence August 15. Among the newly arrived members of the club are Mrs. Henry L. Gillespie, John Dalzell, Mrs. S. Dalzell, A. C. Battelle, Miss A. Cousse, Miss M. Cousse and Fred A. Hodgesman. Count Cassimir S. Mankowski has been elected into the Country Club. He is an enthusiastic golfer and tennis player.

The annual luncheon at the Thousand Islands Yacht Club, one of the most brilliant social functions of the season, will be held this evening.

Countess Mankowski, mother of Count Cassimir S. Mankowski, has arrived for the golf cup races. Countess Mankowski, wife of the Count, did not attend the races this year.

Lieut. E. P. Wishar of the United States revenue cutter service is at Alexandria Bay. Lieut. Wishar had charge of the course during the golf cup races.

Mrs. J. Miles Gibbons and Mrs. De Lane of New York were hostesses at a card party given at the Thousand Islands Yacht Club Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira A. Kipp, Jr., and family are now at their summer home, Leek Island. They are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Flower of New York, Miss Nell Jewett, Charles and John Jewett of South Orange, N. J.

FAST POWER BOATS AT LAKE PLACID RACES

Colony Eagerly Turns Out to Watch Test of Speed, Later Having Tea in the Clubhouse.

Large Crowd Witnessed Women Contestants' Good Work in Canoe Races.

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Aug. 2.—In the first of the power boat races under the auspices of the Lake Placid Yacht Club, which will take place here this afternoon, the Peter Pan, Esquire, the fast hydroplane of E. B. Leisenring of Guilford, the camp of Lyman H. Broadway, will meet the Natomia, owned by Clifford Herbert, the Wagonwheel and Thosmoran, owned by William L. Surplee, and other fast boats that have figured in the races of previous seasons. The test of speed is one that has long been anticipated and members of the summer colony will be out in large numbers. Tea will be served at the club house from 4 to 6.

Another large crowd welcomed the opening of the water sports on Monday, when all kinds of canoe races were on the card. A feature of the afternoon was the excellent work of Miss Opal Norton, daughter of the Rev. R. F. Norton of Brooklyn, who in addition to winning in events for women only was a member of the winning crew in the tiding contest and was the only woman participating in the war canoe race, in which her crew finished second.

Miss Adele Humphrey, another of the women contestants who did good work, winning with Harlan Skerrett in the mixed doubles, will soon entertain at the Humphrey camp Miss Dorothy Jamborger, a society girl of Salt Lake City.

Among the camp arrivals of the week was Brig. Gen. Marion P. Mason, commanding the Department of the Columbia, who with his aide, Lieut. D. B. Crafton, was the week end guest of Major and Mrs. Hamilton Rowan at Camp Bivona.

Dr. Elmer Burritt Bryan, president of Colgate University, who is among the recent arrivals, will remain through August. Assemblyman Thomas Denning and A. Greenberg of Manhattan came up early in the week and have gone to the camp of Assemblyman S. G. Prime, 2d, at Conary, Fred.

Miss Stewart, whom Miss Hughes, daughter of Associate Justice Hughes, has been entertaining at Calumet Lodge on Moose Island, has returned to her home in New York.

Miss Olive Bain, who has been the camp guest of Miss Ella Herbert, has also gone back to the city.

Among the many making the ascent of Mount Whiteface during the week were Mr. Hsieh-wen Sun and Mr. K. F. Hu, two Chinese students from Harvard who have biked through the White Mountains and are now en route through the Adirondacks to Niagara Falls.

In the golf events that have formed a principal portion of the sports of the week at the Stevens House James H. Higgins, former Governor of Rhode Island, who is with Mrs. Higgins and a child at garden cottage, has taken an active part and is playing a good game. J. P. M. Mahon of the Garden City Golf Club and William J. McConville, also of that club, are others who have taken a prominent part in the tournaments. One of the best scores of the week was made by Howard Whitney of the Nassau Country Club.

The baseball games that are to be features of the month of August have been started, and in a contest with a team from the Placid club the Stevens House players were victorious by the close score of 10 to 5.

Gen. Joseph D. Montgomerie, Commander-in-Chief of the military forces of Cuba, recently reached the Grand View Hotel.
